

ILLINOIS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CALENDAR

August 3, 2026

The Illinois International Business Calendar is published by the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago (ITA/GC). The Calendar is also available on our website: www.itagc.org. It is published every Friday, and available at no charge.

Inclusion Policy: As a public service to the international business community, we publish a listing of international business events for which we receive written notification, preferably by e-mail (info@itagc.org). Any organization may submit events that would be of interest to and are open to the Illinois international business community. There is no charge. All calendar listings are subject to the editor's discretion. Inclusion of an event does not imply endorsement by any of the sponsoring organizations.

Founded in 1978, the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago (ITA/GC) is a not-for-profit, 501(c)6 voluntary business association dedicated to promoting international commerce in all its forms. The ITA/GC provides a forum for the exchange of practical information and insight within the international business community. Members share interests in import and export matters, in international investment, alliance, and licensing opportunities, and – in the broader sense – doing business across the world.

The ITA/GC's focus is on practicality: on building knowledge and enabling relationships that help people do international business. While our scope of interest is diverse – all aspects of trading and commercial activity across all geographies and all industries – our work is simple: to help others gain understanding that is personal, current and actionable.

New events, and events with additional/revised information, are indicated in Green.

FEATURED ITA/GC PROGRAM

HELPING YOU GAIN UNDERSTANDING THAT IS PERSONAL, CURRENT & ACTIONABLE

Aug. 25 LEVERAGING NEW FINANCING OPPORTUNITIES IN A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT. Special Panel Discussion & Reception sponsored by the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago. Amid these tumultuous times for U.S. exporters & importers, there appear a few rays of genuine optimism for leveraging new financing opportunities: The SBA has new lending thresholds, and the EXIM Bank has new programs. Getting access to capital can be challenging to help support the growth & expansion of your business...hear from an SBA Finance Manager to learn about the opportunities available to your business through your bank to monetize your assets, take on larger contracts & fuel growth globally. Our panelists are intimately familiar with these and will bring real-world examples of how they work in practice. Panelists: Marriel Huasanga, Regional Director, EXIM Bank; Keith Schlegel, Finance Manager, U.S. Small Business Administration's Office of Manufacturing and Trade; Ursula Wegrzynowicz, Market Executive, Impello Global Insurance Services; Gayle Roenbaugh (Moderator), Director, Office of Manufacturing and Trade, U.S. Small Business Administration. 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. (Reception follows); Carlucci Rosemont, 6111 North River Road, Rosemont, IL. ITA/GC Members - $35; Non-members - $50. Of Note:

Trump's New Tariffs over Forced Labor Are Unlikely to Survive a Court Challenge: In analyzing why the courts will almost certainly strike down Trump's latest 301 tariffs, the Peterson Institute for International Economics Alan Wm. Wolf concludes: "To paraphrase Chief Justice John Roberts Jr., times change, the Constitution does not. Setting broad tariffs is the sole prerogative of the Congress, not the president."

Forced Labor Section 301 Duties Start Friday (August 1) at 12:01 a.m.: David Forgue of Barnes Richadson explains some of the subtle differences in Section 301 duty rates depending on country. The new duties will be located at 9903.05.20 through 9903.06.21.

PPI Background on the Trump Administration's Attempt to Implement Section 301 and Forced Labor Tariffs: The Progressive Policy Institute's Ed Gresser summarizes why the recently imposed Section 301 tariffs are "likely to cost Americans roughly $100 billion a year."

Foreign Investment in Canada: Navigating the Investment Canada Act from Net Benefit to National Security: Blakes Canada has published this useful Overview of the Investment Canada Act (ICA). This examines the key developments shaping the 2026 landscape and offers practical insights to help businesses navigate an increasingly complex regulatory environment. It is available for download here.

Ranked: The Countries That Consume the Most Coal: This Visual Capitalist visualization comes from the Energy Institute's Statistical Review of World Energy 2026. It measures primary coal consumption in exajoules (EJ) during 2025. Coal remains the world's largest source of electricity generation, even as countries invest heavily in renewable energy. China and India together consumed roughly 70% of the world's coal.

War Sends Asia-US Ocean Rates Soaring 234% since February: Since the start of the Iran crisis Feb. 28, writes FreightWaves, spot rates have surged 231% to $6,225 per forty-foot equivalent for Far East to U.S. West Coast transit, and 234% to $8,846 per FEU to the East Coast. By comparison, Far East to North Europe prices are up 135%, and Far East to Mediterranean ports, 96%, in that time.

Toward a US-Africa Critical Minerals Investment Strategy: Tools, Priorities, and Trade-offs: This Brookings Institution report analyzes how the U.S. government can expand its access to African critical minerals, bolstering its position against international competitors. China's growing trade and investment in African mining and infrastructure has been key to this strategy, granting it an advantage in competition with the U.S.

A New US Rule to Restrict Student Visas Will Hurt the US Economy: According to Michael A. Clemens writing for the Peterson Institute for International Economics, the Trump administration issued a final rule in July that gives it discretion to cut short the course of study of most international students at US universities. Disrupting international students, scholars, and researchers will ultimately deter them from coming in the first place... That would deepen the US trade deficit... and harm all Americans by slashing the supply of high-skill workers, impairing US innovation and productivity for a generation.

Five Practical Steps Foreign Brands Should Take to Prepare for China's New Trademark Law: Fred Rocafort, writing in Harris Sliwoski's China Law Blog, advises to file early: Beginning January 1, 2027, you will have only two months—not three—to oppose conflicting applications.

EXIM Issues Updated Country Limitation Schedule (CLS): Changes effective 12:01 a.m. EDT. Current CLS is here; Memorandum of Changes is here.

Data as Intellectual Property: China's Experiment: Writing in China IPR, Mark Cohen and colleagues from Zhejiang University and Zhejiang Provincial Research Center for Data Intellectual Property, cite China's nascent efforts to establish three registration systems to register data-related rights: a data IP registration system administered by the China National Intellectual Property Administration (CNIPA), a broader data property rights registration system promoted by the National Data Administration (NDA), and a data asset accounting system overseen by the Ministry of Finance.

U.S. Commercial Service Updated User Fee Schedule Now in Effect: The new Fee Schedule is here, effective July 22, 2026.

Direct Investment by Country and Industry, 2025: On July 21 the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis released statistics for the U.S. direct investment abroad position (increased $438.1 billion to $7.14 trillion at the end of 2025) and the foreign direct investment in the U.S. position (increased $266.0 billion to $5.86 trillion at the end of 2025). Both are accompanied by regional analyses.

Request for Comments on the Scope and Operation of a Mechanism to Promote Reciprocal Managed Trade with China: USTR Federal Register Notice invites comments from interested parties to inform the development of negotiations with China aimed at optimizing bilateral trade in non-sensitive products in order to promote reciprocity and balance in the U.S.-China trade relationship.

Fertilizer Trade Impacted by Strait of Hormuz Conflict: In this Data Blog by the WTO Secretariat, the authors observe that trade in urea and phosphate fertilizers has been severely disrupted by the conflict in the Persian Gulf. Certain economies in Africa and Asia are particularly vulnerable to resulting fertilizer shortages and price hikes. Opening of the Strait of Hormuz - a key channel for fertilizer trade - will in due course contribute to easing trade frictions and restore stability to global markets.

America's Future in the Post-American World Economy: Writing in an Op-Ed for the Peterson Institute for International Economics, Adam Posen observes: "American global economic dominance has been clear for at least the last 110 years of its 250-year history, and it was widely foretold for half a century before that." But now, if the United States does not change course, "no matter how many bilateral trade deals it brokers, no matter how many economies appear—at first—to align with Washington at a high cost, the country will find itself increasingly bypassed in commerce and technology."

World Bank's Commodity Markets Outlook, April 2026: The Middle East war has triggered the largest oil supply shock on record, pushing commodity prices sharply higher and exposing vulnerabilities across energy, food, fertilizer, and metals markets. The World Bank's report Commodity Markets Outlook, April 2026 examines how geopolitical disruptions at key chokepoints can cascade across commodity markets and what governments can do to build resilience.

OECD Compendium of Productivity Indicators 2026: The Compendium of Productivity Indicators provides an overview of recent and long-term productivity trends across OECD countries and, where possible, accession candidate countries. Across all OECD countries, labor productivity at the total economy level grew by 1.2% in 2024, double the growth recorded in 2023. Despite geopolitical tensions, skill shortages, and elevated economic uncertainty, 29 OECD countries saw labor productivity gains in 2024.

Atlas of Global Development 2026: Across the global development landscape, which countries are moving the fastest, and which are losing ground? The 2026 edition of the World Bank's Atlas of Global Development puts progress at its center. Looking at how fast countries are moving toward better outcomes and facing different challenges, from their own individual starting points, this edition introduces a new framework to track development over the past 75 years, revealing how countries have advanced across key dimensions.

Call for U.S. Buyers: Taiwan Trade Shows & Sourcing Programs (Spring–Summer 2026): The Taiwan Trade Center, Chicago (TAITRA) invites U.S. companies, particularly those in manufacturing, technology, automotive, and food industries, to explore sourcing opportunities in Taiwan through upcoming trade shows and buyer programs. Eligible buyers may qualify for travel incentives (flight and/or hotel support), subject to availability. Companies planning to source from Taiwan are welcome to contact the Taiwan Trade Center, Chicago for more information and application details: Taiwan Trade Center, Chicago - chicago@taitra.org.tw.
