

ILLINOIS INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS CALENDAR

November 2, 2026

The Illinois International Business Calendar is published by the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago (ITA/GC). The Calendar is also available on our website: www.itagc.org. It is published every Friday, and available at no charge.

Inclusion Policy: As a public service to the international business community, we publish a listing of international business events for which we receive written notification, preferably by e-mail (info@itagc.org). Any organization may submit events that would be of interest to and are open to the Illinois international business community. There is no charge. All calendar listings are subject to the editor's discretion. Inclusion of an event does not imply endorsement by any of the sponsoring organizations.

Founded in 1978, the International Trade Association of Greater Chicago (ITA/GC) is a not-for-profit, 501(c)6 voluntary business association dedicated to promoting international commerce in all its forms. The ITA/GC provides a forum for the exchange of practical information and insight within the international business community. Members share interests in import and export matters, in international investment, alliance, and licensing opportunities, and – in the broader sense – doing business across the world.

The ITA/GC's focus is on practicality: on building knowledge and enabling relationships that help people do international business. While our scope of interest is diverse – all aspects of trading and commercial activity across all geographies and all industries – our work is simple: to help others gain understanding that is personal, current and actionable.

Of Note:

Barnes Richardson Publishes Class Action Information Page: To help importers understand what the class action is designed to accomplish (and how) Barnes, Richardson & Colburn has created a webpage dedicated to the litigation that explains who belongs in the class, what class members should do now, and answers frequently asked questions. The CIT is also maintaining a repository where it will post documents related to the litigation.

International Commerce Chartbook: October 2026: BBVA researchers have compiled this comprehensive book on trends shaping international commerce. For example: “Rising protectionism and a shift toward diversification and self-sufficiency over efficiency have not led to deglobalization. Instead, global trade continues to expand rapidly, outpacing GDP growth.”

The $128 Trillion Global Economy: Every Country’s GDP Ranked: The world’s economies vary enormously in size, from the United States at over $32 trillion to dozens of countries producing less than $100 billion annually. This Visual Capitalist visualization breaks down nominal gross domestic product (GDP) by country and region using new forecasts from the IMF’s October 2026 World Economic Outlook.

The Race for Malaysia’s Rare Earths: An Indo-Pacific Strategy: In this Center for Strategic & International Studies report, Meredith Schwartz observes that Malaysia has become a key player in the rare earth supply chain. At the center of Malaysia’s strategic importance is its refining capacity: In 2025, it became the first country outside of China to produce dysprosium oxide, a key heavy rare earth for the defense industry.

New Drewry Data Shows Import Demand Boosting Trans-Pacific Rates: As reported by Freight Waves, Drewry’s World Container Index rose 2% to $4,585 per 40-foot container, supported by higher rates on trans-Pacific and Asia-Europe routes as strong U.S. import demand and carrier capacity cuts bolstered pricing. Shanghai-to-Los Angeles rates increased 2% to $8,007 per 40-foot container, while Shanghai-to-New York rates edged up 1% to $10,166.

Urgent Energy Export Opportunities in Ecuador and Venezuela – U.S. Suppliers Needed: The U.S. Commercial Service is highlighting two time-sensitive opportunities for U.S. energy companies in Ecuador and Venezuela. Both countries have identified critical needs for power generation equipment, oil and gas technologies, and related services, creating potential opportunities for U.S. exporters to supply equipment and expertise. For information, please reach out to: Thomas.Clever@trade.gov.

How to Protect Your IP in China: Answers to the Questions Foreign Companies Ask Most: In this edition of China Law Blog, Harris Sliwoski offers practical advice (“The best time to protect your IP is before the other side has it”) on protecting your IP in China.

US Exports to China 2026: The U.S.-China Business Council has just released their 2026 report. This report explores the latest data on American exports to China and the jobs they support across the United States. These figures include goods exports during calendar year 2025. This report does not capture services exports to China.

WTO Releases Global Trade Outlook and Statistics: According to the latest Global Trade Outlook and Statistics released on October 8, merchandise trade volume is now expected to grow by 3.9% in 2026, up from the March forecast of 1.9%, before increasing further to 4.1% in 2027. IN the first half of 2026, merchandise trade volume grew by 3.5%, exceeding expectations despite the disruption caused by the Middle East conflict.

IMF’s World Economic Outlook: The October 2026 World Economic Outlook projects global growth to slow to 3.1% in 2026 and rebound to 3.4% in 2027. Global headline inflation is projected to rise notably to 4.7% in 2026 before easing to 4.1% in 2027. Energy-importing economies outside the technology value chain face the most difficult outlook.

USTR Seeks Public Comment on the 2027 Joint Review of USMCA: The Office of the U.S. Trade Representative announced a public consultation process in advance of the 2027 joint review of the Agreement between the United States of America, the United Mexican States, and Canada (USMCA). The deadline for submission of comments is January 12, 2027, at 11:59 p.m. EST. The Federal Register notice is here. To submit comments, click here.

China Economic Outlook: September 2026: BBVA Research on Sept. 29 released its Outlook on China. In summary, the Chinese economy slowed to 4.3% in Q2 2026 due to domestic risks such as a supply-demand mismatch, weak consumption, and a housing crisis. The GDP growth forecast is maintained at 4.5% for 2026 and 4.2% for 2027, and the CPI forecast is lowered to 0.8%.

The New World Map the UN Wants You to Use: On Sept. 4, 2026, the UN General Assembly adopted the “Correct the Map” resolution by a 164-1 vote, endorsing the Equal Earth projection. Visual Capitalist presents this new map alongside the old Mercator projection. The lone dissenter: the U.S.

The $531 Million “Small” Business: SBA Proposes Massive Overhaul of Size Standards: Thompson Hine reports SBA recently published two proposed rules that would fundamentally redefine what qualifies as a “small” business. The first overhauls the methodology for setting size standards; the second applies that methodology to produce dramatically higher thresholds.

One of the World’s Smallest Countries Has a New Name: The New York Times reports the South Pacific island of Nauru wants its name to more closely match how it is said in the language spoken by its people: Naoero. That’s the new name for the small South Pacific country formerly known as Nauru. Its Parliament unanimously approved the change in May and the name became official, President David Adeang said last week,

Atlas of Global Development 2026: Across the global development landscape, which countries are moving the fastest, and which are losing ground? The 2026 edition of the World Bank’s Atlas of Global Development puts progress at its center. Looking at how fast countries are moving toward better outcomes and facing different challenges, from their own individual starting points, this edition introduces a new framework to track development over the past 75 years, revealing how countries have advanced across key dimensions.
